

COURT, ALLEN CTY.
FILED
ELTON L. MARQUART, CLERK

1939 NOV 6 AM 9 44

M E M O R I A M

FOR

GILMORE S. HAYNIE

We, of the Wells County Bar Association, were shocked to learn of the passing of Gilmore S. Haynie, a member of the Allen County Bar.

Gil was well known to most of the members of the Wells County Bar Association and had been associated as co-counsel and as adversary in litigation and other matters pertaining to the practice of law.

He married Mary Ann Kunkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kunkel, who were leading citizens of our community.

At the time of his death he was a member of the law firm of Livingstone, Dildine, Haynie and Yoder and he had appeared many times in court in our County and was recognized as one of the leading trial lawyers of Northern Indiana. He possessed a well-founded knowledge of corporation matters and his work in the Study Commission over a period of several years, together with his many activities of a civic nature made him one of Fort Wayne's leading citizens.

He was a graduate of Indiana University from which he held a B.S. and L.L.B. Degree. He was a Past President of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Indiana State Bar Association, had served on many boards for civic enterprises such as the Chamber of Commerce, President of Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Co. (WKJG) and at the time of his death was a member of the Board of Directors of the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Gil was very active in First Presbyterian Church, Fort Wayne, as a Past President of its Board of Trustees and was involved in many other activities which are well known to attorneys in this area and to the public generally.

The Allen County Bar Association has lost one of its most honored lawyers. Fort Wayne and Allen County has lost an outstanding citizen and we feel a void and disbelief in the passing of one so young who had before him a great future - one to which all lawyers aspire.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ann, and his sons, Gilmore S. Haynie, Jr. and William K. Haynie.

We of the Wells County Bar Association, in meeting assembled, have adopted the following Resolution:

"BE IT RESOLVED by the Wells County Bar Association that we express to the family of GILMORE S. HAYNIE, our sincere sympathy in his sudden passing.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of this Association cause a copy of this Memoriam to be placed of record in the Wells Circuit Court and forward a copy thereof to the Allen County Bar Association and a copy to the family of Mr. Haynie.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the above and foregoing Memoriam expresses the heartfelt sympathies of the members of the Wells County Bar Association."

WELLS COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

By:

Dwight F. Gallivan
Dwight F. Gallivan

By:

A. Walter Hamilton
A. Walter Hamilton

By:

John H. Edris, Jr.
John H. Edris, Jr.

David C. Dale

David C. Dale, President
Wells County Bar Association

1969 OCT 16 PM 4 10

M E M O R I A L

GILMORE S. HAYNIE

This afternoon our Allen County Indiana Bar Association assembles in sadness for the purpose of enabling us to express our profound respect and friendship for the gentleman and the lawyer, Gilmore S. Haynie.

Neither words nor thoughts nor finest tributes can possibly depict the great talents, the inspiring personality, the high character and the grand charm of this colleague we called "Gil".

As husband and father, son and friend, able leader and brilliant lawyer, there were blended within him those superior qualities which made him a truly distinguished man.

He was born June 29, 1918, in Evansville, Indiana, where he attended the public grade schools and Central High School.

At Indiana University he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta, social fraternity, Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, Skull and Crescent, Sphinx Club, and the varsity tennis team. He graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1939 and in 1942 received his L.L.B. Degree from the Indiana University School of Law.

He began the practice of law in the City of Fort Wayne in the year 1942 and was appointed Assistant United States District Attorney for the Northern District of Indiana in the year 1945 and served until 1949 when he was appointed United States District Attorney for the Northern District of Indiana in which capacity he served from 1949 to 1953. He was Special Assistant to the United States Attorney General in 1953. He was a member of the Allen County Indiana Bar Association, the Indiana State Bar Association and the American Bar Association. He was a member of the Law-Science Academy and was a Fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers and was also a member of the Judicial Study Commission of the State of Indiana to which he was appointed in 1965 by Governor Roger Branigin who also appointed him as a member of the Civil Code Study Commission in 1967. Gil was past president of the Trial Lawyers Section of the Indiana State Bar Association. He was honored by appointment as a member of the Board of Visitors, Indiana University School of Law.

Gil served in the United States Navy from 1942 to 1945 and was commissioned an ensign in Naval Intelligence when he served overseas in 1943. He was executive officer of the Port Director's Office in Hull, England, and assistant Beach Operations Officer during the invasion of Normandy and executive officer of the Port Director's Office. He was separated from the service in September 1945 with the rank of lieutenant senior grade and was lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve.

He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Peoples Trust and Savings Company, the Journal-Gazette Company, Newman Foundry, Inc., and the Fort Wayne Growth Industries, Inc. In the years 1948 - 1949 he was president and director of the Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company which operated WKJG. For a term he served on the Board of Directors of the Wildcat Recreation Association, Inc.

He was an active and loyal member of the First Presbyterian Church and served as president of its Board of Trustees. He was past president of the Fort Wayne Country Club and of Indiana University Alumni Club of Fort Wayne. He was a member of the Quest Club, Caldron Club, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Fort Wayne Rotary Club, Fort Wayne Chamber of Commerce, Indiana Society of Chicago, the Mad Anthonys and the American Judicature Society.

His generous contributions to his church, his community, to the State of Indiana, and to his country have been manifold.

Gil was a member of Summit City Lodge No. 170 F & A M, the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, Valley of Fort Wayne and was a Thirty Second Degree Mason. He was also a member of Mizpah Temple A.A.O.N.M.S. He was a member of the law firm of Livingston, Dildine, Haynie and Yoder.

His loyalty to friends and his love of friendship added a fine richness to his life. He possessed an innate sense of humor and was a rollicking raconteur.

Gilmore S. Haynie possessed legal ability of the highest order. His numerous successes in major trials did not decrease his humility. To know him was to recognize that here was a man of intellect, character, integrity and personal charm. His opponents in trial saw the aggressive, alert, and highly skilled lawyer and honored him for his integrity, his honesty and his superb talents. He had that intuitive ability which enabled him to see clearly the heart of a problem with vision undimmed by diverting circumstances.

Gil had an abiding and intense love for his family and his family revered him. He died during surgery October 10, 1969, in the City of Indianapolis. He was survived by his wife, the former Mary Ann Kunkel of Bluffton, Indiana, two sons, Gilmore S. Haynie, Jr., and William K. Haynie and by his mother Mrs. Gilmore M. Haynie and his brother Kenneth G. Haynie of Evansville, Indiana.

His life was replete with accomplishments and stands as a model for lawyers and fine men. We shall miss his smile, his pipe, his glorious friendship and his marvelous sense of humor.

There is no death! What seems so is transition;

This life of mortal breath

Is but a suburb of the life elysian

Whose portal we call death.

Respectfully submitted,

JUDGE FRANK J. CELAREK

JUDGE JESSE E. ESCHBACH

JUDGE DALE J. MYERS

JUDGE W. O. HUGHES

JUDGE HAROLD E. KORN

JUDGE LOUIS L. BLOOM

JUDGE CLARENCE R. MCNABB

JUDGE FRED D. SCHOPPMAN

ARTHUR W. PARRY

EDWIN R. THOMAS, CHAIRMAN

CIRCUIT COURT, ALLEN CITY,
FILED
ELTON L. MARQUART, CLERK

1969 NOV 6 AM 9 44

RESOLUTION
OF
KOSCIUSKO COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION on the death of
GILMORE S. HAYNIE
OF
ALLEN COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

It was with great shock and deep regret and sorrow that the members of the Kosciusko County Bar Association learned of the death of Gilmore S. Haynie, a member of the Allen County Bar.

At a special meeting of the Kosciusko County Bar Association held at the Courthouse in Warsaw, Indiana, on October 13th, 1969, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, many of the individual members of the Kosciusko County Bar have long been close personal friends and many others have long and favorably known Gilmore S. Haynie of the Allen County Bar during the years he was a practicing member of the Allen County Bar as well as during the time when he was associated with the Federal Courts and the Attorney General of the United States; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Haynie was also highly respected and a well known member of his community and in its civic, fraternal and church life; and,

WHEREAS, he will always be remembered by the Kosciusko County Bar for his geniality, his integrity, and his adeptness in the art and practice of the law; his natural acumen, his genuine fairness and sympathetic consideration not only for his clients but for all members of the community, his opponents as well as his colleagues. He was a fine student of the law and his opinions concerning legal matters were highly respected by both the bench and the bar in all the communities in which he practiced law. At fifty-one years of age he had reached one of the highest pinnacles in his profession.

He was a faithful and beloved husband and father, and his passing will create a tremendous void in his home, his community, the bench and the bar, which will long be felt by all those who loved and respected him.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Kosciusko County Bar Association that we extend our deepest sympathy to the members of his family, to his wife and to his sons and to the members of the Allen County Bar Association upon the occasion of the death of Gilmore S. Haynie.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution be spread of record on the Order Books of Kosciusko County and that copies thereof be forwarded to the Allen County Bar Association and to the widow of the deceased and his children.

John W. St. Paul

Allen DeRosa

John A. ...

(Committee)

CIRCUIT COURT, ALLEN CTY.,
FILED
ELTON L. MARQUART, CLERK

1969 NOV 6 AM 9 44

R E S O L U T I O N

THE MEMBERS OF THE Whitley County Bar Association grieve with the friends and family of Gilmore Haynie. Widely recognized as a brilliant trial lawyer and advocate, Gilmore Haynie was also justly credited with being an outstanding citizen, churchman, family man and friend. The legal profession and the community at large can ill afford the loss of such a man, whose death at the age of 51, leaves a wide gap in the society in which he lived.

The Whitley County Bar Association extends its sympathy to his wife and children, to his brothers of the Bar of Allen County, and to his many friends.

WHITLEY COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION

By William M. Bloom
(WILLIAM M. BLOOM)

Benton Earl Gates
(BENTON EARL GATES)

1969 NOV 6 AM 9 44

IN MEMORIAM - GILMORE S. HAYNIE

1 The distinguished career of one of Indiana's most honor-
2 able and respected citizens and one of the legal profession's
3 most dedicated and devoted members has come to an untimely
4 close in the prime years of his professional life. In the 5 passing of Gilmore S. Haynie, his family, his friends and 6 his community have lost a beloved relative, an esteemed
7 associate and a good neighbor who was highly respected and 8 loved for his generous contributions to society. Here was 9 a friendly man, deeply sympathetic in the understanding of 10 problems of those who sought his wise counsel, forthright
11 and conscientious of manner and purpose, gentle in his 12 appreciation of the beliefs of others but determined and 13 steadfast in defending or advocating that in which he 14 believed, faithful and untiring in his work for the improve-
15 ment of justice under law and generous in his contributions
16 to the betterment of his chosen profession.

17 To list the many honors accorded Gilmore S. Haynie,
18 to recount the multitude of his activities in all worthy 19 areas of human endeavor, to point to all the facets of 20 human betterment which prospered at his hand, to enumerate
21 the professional, religious, patriotic, humane, educational,
22 fraternal, financial and social groups which are in his
23 debt for his selfless devotion to their cause is an unneces-
24 sary exercise--the excellence of his participation in all 25 these areas is clearly demonstrated by a preponderance of 26 the evidence of the products of his labors. No mere cata-
27 logue of the events and the achievements of his life can 28 hope to give an adequate impression of this man, nor can such

Office of
Reporter DeKalb Circuit Court
Auburn, Indiana

1 completely evaluate the magnitude of the loss his passing
2 brings. In his lifetime of unfaltering devotion and loyalty
3 to the highest ideals to which man can aspire, he truly
4 represented his profession, his country and mankind at their 5 best.

6 Through all his demonstrations of truly useful citizen-
7 ship, he remained reserved and wholly unobtrusive. He 8 maintained a quiet dignity, never seeking to impose his 9 views or opinions on any person or group. Indeed, his 10 views and opinions were widely sought and earnestly solicited.
11 He was faithful to every trust. His was an unstinted loyalty
12 to truth and honor with an absolute devotion of his best
13 talents and attainments to the support of every cause com-
14 mitted to his trust.

15 We, as colleagues in his profession and as individuals,
16 mourn the loss of this faithful, learned and honored advo-
17 cate, whose career was distinguished by strict adherence
18 to all the worthy attributes of a fine lawyer and a gracious
19 gentleman. For one who has shared his life generously across 20 the span of useful years, who has invested liberally in 21 human helpfulness, who served his fellow man unselfishly
22 and well, the sunset could have held nothing of fear. He 23 faced life unafraid. He bettered every worthy enterprise
24 to which he gave of himself. The dignity of his simplicity,
25 the worth of his character, the silent power of his unfail-
26 ing kindness, the quiet influence of his example which was 27 always worthy of emulation, the genuineness of his humility
28 and forthrightness, the ennobling influence of his presence

Office of
Reporter DeKalb Circuit Court
Auburn, Indiana

1 and his deep sense of obligation to duty are memories we keep
2 of him.

3 Gilmore S. Haynie possessed all the fine attributes of 4 an excellent lawyer. He possessed an honesty of purpose,
5 truthfulness of nature, benevolence of aim, a love of justice
6 and detestation of wrong. In the exercise of these native
7 powers, he was courageous, strongwilled, self-confident,
8 cautious but firm. He employed these powers always under a
9 clear and abiding sense of the highest obligations of a
10 trusted counsellor. For him, the highest duty of the advo-
11 cate was to be loyal to the client and to the cause he had 12 undertaken to maintain or defend. To win the case entrusted
13 to him was his obligation and to this end he spared no effort
14 and rejected no expedient within the bounds of honorable
15 conduct. His theory of advocacy was always consistent with 16 the sound and wholesome administration of justice. To main-17 tain the dignity and honor of the courts and to maintain and 18 guard a high standard of public morality were regarded by 19 him as a sacred service.

20 With the passing of Gilmore S. Haynie, three immortali-
21 ties are assured--his own when the Creator called him to add
22 the light of his life to that of eternal morning--another,
23 his life as a humanitarian who loved and served his fellow
24 man and a citizen who accepted and discharged the responsi-
25 bilities that good citizenship impose--and the other, his 26 career as an excellent lawyer whose exemplification of the 27 highest standards, traditions and ideals of the profession
28 which was honored by his membership, shall continue on in

Office of
Reporter DeKalb Circuit Court
Auburn, Indiana

1 the lives of all with whom he was associated.

2 Now, therefore, Be it remembered that the members of
3 the DeKalb County Bar Association, separately and severally,
4 extend to his widow, Mary Ann, to his sons, to his mother
5 and to all his loved ones an assurance of sincere sympathy
6 in their great loss; that the foregoing memorial be and the 7 same is hereby adopted by said association; that a copy of 8 the same be spread upon the records in the offices of the 9 Clerks of DeKalb and Allen Counties and that a copy thereof
10 be forwarded to his widow.

11 Dated this 14th day of October, 1969.

12
13
14 Harold D. Stump

15
16 John Martin Smith

17 RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE OF THE
18 DEKALB COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION.
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28