

CIRCUIT COURT, ALLEN CO.,
FILED CLERK

I N M E M O R I A M

JOHN W. KENNY

MAR 10 AM 1:51

JOHN W. KENNY was born September 7, 1907 in New York City and at an early age moved to Evansville, Indiana. He received his elementary and high school education in the parochial schools of that city. He attended Notre Dame University from 1924 to 1927. He graduated from Indiana University Law School in 1934 and was immediately admitted to the practice of law. He married Dorothy Roebke of this city in 1934, and leaves surviving him his faithful wife and a son, Thomas.

John began his practice in this city in 1934, associating himself with Hugh Kennerk. These were the dark days of our economy when work was plentiful and fees were at a minimum. These times brought forth from lawyers the ability to fight for a delinquent debtor to delay the inevitable and hope for a better day; to grasp and hold to a shadow in hope that the client could meet his obligations. Jack by nature was well equipped for that struggle, a good student of the law, had ability to write rapidly and clearly, and above all was quick to realize the frailties of man and the quicker to forgive and forget the errors and mistakes to which all flesh is heir to.

His ready wit, his genial companionship, and his ability to tell a story made him a natural combatant in the political arena. Many times he entered that arena and although always the vanquished, he never was disgruntled and never offered alibis. He was always willing to give of his time and money to his political party. His legal assistance to many lawyers, his kindness to members of the profession, particularly to the younger members, his humbleness, his love of other people, and his fight for life against insurmountable odds were all woven together to form a pattern of Jack's daily way of life.

Jack leaves an indelible imprint on all who knew him as a considerate husband, a loving father, a loyal friend, a gentleman and a lawyer.

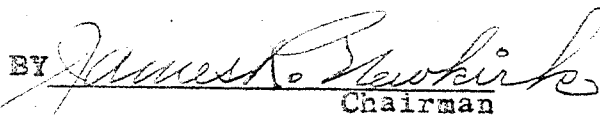

Be it resolved by the Allen County Indiana Bar Association that this memorial to John W. Kenny be adopted and a copy thereof presented to his family and a copy thereof spread upon the records of all the Courts of Allen County, Indiana.

Respectfully submitted,

Lloyd S. Hartzler
William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert E. Leonard
Clarence R. McNabb
Dan C. Flanagan
Edwin R. Thomas
Henry Hasley
James R. Newkirk

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

BY

Chairman

I N M E M O R I A M

JOHN W. KENNY

ALLEN SUPERIOR COURT #3
FILED CLERK

1959 MAR 11 AM 10:46

JOHN W. KENNY was born September 7, 1907 in New York City and at an early age moved to Evansville, Indiana. He received his elementary and high school education in the parochial schools of that city. He attended Notre Dame University from 1924 to 1927. He graduated from Indiana University Law School in 1934 and was immediately admitted to the practice of law. He married Dorothy Roembke of this city in 1934, and leaves surviving him his faithful wife and a son, Thomas.

John began his practice in this city in 1934, associating himself with Hugh Kennerk. These were the dark days of our economy when work was plentiful and fees were at a minimum. These times brought forth from lawyers the ability to fight for a delinquent debtor to delay the inevitable and hope for a better day; to grasp and hold to a shadow in hope that the client could meet his obligations. Jack by nature was well equipped for that struggle, a good student of the law, had ability to write rapidly and clearly, and above all was quick to realize the frailties of man and the quicker to forgive and forget the errors and mistakes to which all flesh is heir to.

His ready wit, his genial companionship, and his ability to tell a story made him a natural combatant in the political arena. Many times he entered that arena and although always the vanquished, he never was disgruntled and never offered alibis. He was always willing to give of his time and money to his political party. His legal assistance to many lawyers, his kindness to members of the profession, particularly to the younger members, his humbleness, his love of other people, and his fight for life against insurmountable odds were all woven together to form a pattern of Jack's daily way of life.

Jack leaves an indelible imprint on all who knew him as a considerate husband, a loving father, a loyal friend, a gentleman and a lawyer.

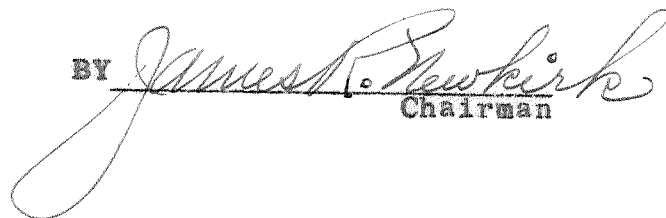

Be it resolved by the Allen County Indiana Bar Association that this memorial to John W. Kenny be adopted and a copy thereof presented to his family and a copy thereof spread upon the records of all the Courts of Allen County, Indiana.

Respectfully submitted,

Lloyd S. Hartzler
William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert E. Leonard
Clarence R. McNabb
Dan C. Flanagan
Edwin R. Thomas
Henry Hasley
James R. Newkirk

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

BY

Chairman

I N M E M O R I A M

JOHN W. KENNY

ALLEN SUPERIOR COURT #3
FILED CLERK

1959 MAR 11 AM 10:46

JOHN W. KENNY was born September 7, 1907 in New York City and at an early age moved to Evansville, Indiana. He received his elementary and high school education in the parochial schools of that city. He attended Notre Dame University from 1924 to 1927. He graduated from Indiana University Law School in 1934 and was immediately admitted to the practice of law. He married Dorothy Roembke of this city in 1934, and leaves surviving him his faithful wife and a son, Thomas.

John began his practice in this city in 1934, associating himself with Hugh Kennerk. These were the dark days of our economy when work was plentiful and fees were at a minimum. These times brought forth from lawyers the ability to fight for a delinquent debtor to delay the inevitable and hope for a better day; to grasp and hold to a shadow in hope that the client could meet his obligations. Jack by nature was well equipped for that struggle, a good student of the law, had ability to write rapidly and clearly, and above all was quick to realize the frailties of man and the quicker to forgive and forget the errors and mistakes to which all flesh is heir to.

His ready wit, his genial companionship, and his ability to tell a story made him a natural combatant in the political arena. Many times he entered that arena and although always the vanquished, he never was disgruntled and never offered alibis. He was always willing to give of his time and money to his political party. His legal assistance to many lawyers, his kindness to members of the profession, particularly to the younger members, his humbleness, his love of other people, and his fight for life against insurmountable odds were all woven together to form a pattern of Jack's daily way of life.

Jack leaves an indelible imprint on all who knew him as a considerate husband, a loving father, a loyal friend, a gentleman and a lawyer.

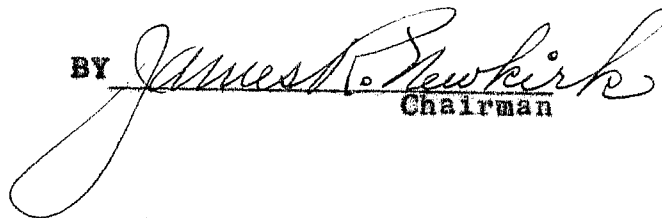

Be it resolved by the Allen County Indiana Bar Association that this memoriam to John W. Kenny be adopted and a copy thereof presented to his family and a copy thereof spread upon the records of all the Courts of Allen County, Indiana.

Respectfully submitted,

Lloyd S. Hartzler
William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert E. Leonard
Clarence R. McNabb
Dan C. Flanagan
Edwin R. Thomas
Henry Hasley
James R. Newkirk

MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

BY

Chairman