

HUGH OLDS,
IN MEMORIAM,
1879-1961

Hugh Olds, a member of the Allen County Bar, passed away May 30, 1961, at the age of 82 years.

Mr. Olds had been a practicing attorney at the Allen County Bar for more than forty years prior to his illness some six years ago, when the infirmities of age and illness obliged him to retire.

He was the son of John and Charlotte Cordelia Olds, who for many years prior to the advent of the automobile, operated a carriage and wagon factory in this city.

Hugh obtained his academic schooling at Central High School where he engaged in many athletic activities. After graduation he attended law school in Indianapolis, and after being admitted to the bar, returned to his home town and engaged in the practice of his profession.

Mr. Olds, during his long and active life was a friendly and amiable person. He experienced many trying times during his early days of professional life, but always maintained an optimistic outlook for the future. During the latter years of his life he suffered great pain and distress, but through it all he took great comfort and consolation in his church.

His wife Gertrude predeceased him in 1931.
