

WILLIAM N. BALLOU - IN MEMORIAM

William N. Ballou was born on November 15, 1875, near Detroit, Michigan, and came to Allen County in the year 1878, where he has resided until his death. In the passing of Judge Ballou, the City of Fort Wayne and Allen County has lost a valuable citizen, an able lawyer, and a congenial and respected friend.

Judge Ballou received his education at Tri-State College and the School of Law of Michigan University. He practiced law in the City of Fort Wayne, and was honored by becoming Judge of the Superior Court of Allen County, in which capacity he served with integrity, fairness, and distinction. He also served as Attorney for Allen County.

Judge Ballou married Verna Fish, who survives him, and there was born to this marriage four children, Major James O. Ballou, Richard W. Ballou, Dr. William Ballou, and Mrs. W. K. Sidwell.

Judge Ballou was an able and conscientious attorney and brought distinction to his associates and profession by the thoroughness, determination, and manner in which he practiced law.

He liked people and was noted for his fellowship, friendliness, and compassion for others. He had a keen interest in the welfare of his community, its progress and advancement, and in civic affairs. He was never too busy to devote his time to some worthy cause. He was always jovial and had a smile for everyone.

In his passing, the Bar has lost a respected leader and a member who possessed a deep sense of justice and an understanding of the law, and the community has lost a respected citizen who contributed much to the growth and development of Fort Wayne and Allen County.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert H. Leonard
Lloyd S. Hartzler
Edward H. Kruse
Edward W. Meyers
Harry H. Hilgemann
Clarence R. McNabb, Chairman

WILLIAM N. BALLOU - IN MEMORIAM

William N. Ballou was born on November 15, 1875, near Detroit, Michigan, and came to Allen County in the year 1878, where he has resided until his death. In the passing of Judge Ballou, the City of Fort Wayne and Allen County has lost a valuable citizen, an able lawyer, and a congenial and respected friend.

Judge Ballou received his education at Tri-State College and the School of Law of Michigan University. He practiced law in the City of Fort Wayne, and was honored by becoming Judge of the Superior Court of Allen County, in which capacity he served with integrity, fairness, and distinction. He also served as Attorney for Allen County.

Judge Ballou married Verna Fish, who survives him, and there was born to this marriage four children, Major James O. Ballou, Richard W. Ballou, Dr. William Ballou, and Mrs. W. K. Sidwell.

Judge Ballou was an able and conscientious attorney and brought distinction to his associates and profession by the thoroughness, determination, and manner in which he practiced law.

He liked people and was noted for his fellowship, friendliness, and compassion for others. He had a keen interest in the welfare of his community, its progress and advancement, and in civic affairs. He was never too busy to devote his time to some worthy cause. He was always jovial and had a smile for everyone.

ALLEN SUPERIOR COURT #3
FILED
ROBERT H. BARNHART, CLERK

1955 MAR 12 PM 1:29

In his passing, the Bar has lost a respected leader and a member who possessed a deep sense of justice and an understanding of the law, and the community has lost a respected citizen who contributed much to the growth and development of Fort Wayne and Allen County.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert H. Leonard
Lloyd S. Hartzler
Edward H. Kruse
Edward W. Meyers
Harry H. Hilgemann
Clarence R. McNabb, Chairman

WILLIAM N. BALLOU - IN MEMORIAM

William N. Ballou was born on November 15, 1875, near Detroit, Michigan, and came to Allen County in the year 1878, where he has resided until his death. In the passing of Judge Ballou, the City of Fort Wayne and Allen County has lost a valuable citizen, an able lawyer, and a congenial and respected friend.

Judge Ballou received his education at Tri-State College and the School of Law of Michigan University. He practiced law in the City of Fort Wayne, and was honored by becoming Judge of the Superior Court of Allen County, in which capacity he served with integrity, fairness, and distinction. He also served as Attorney for Allen County.

Judge Ballou married Verna Fish, who survives him, and there was born to this marriage four children, Major James O. Ballou, Richard W. Ballou, Dr. William Ballou, and Mrs. W. K. Sidwell.

Judge Ballou was an able and conscientious attorney and brought distinction to his associates and profession by the thoroughness, determination, and manner in which he practiced law.

He liked people and was noted for his fellowship, friendliness, and compassion for others. He had a keen interest in the welfare of his community, its progress and advancement, and in civic affairs. He was never too busy to devote his time to some worthy cause. He was always jovial and had a smile for everyone.

FILED
ROBERT K. HAWKINS, CLERK

1956 MAR 12 PM 1:29

In his passing, the Bar has lost a respected leader and a member who possessed a deep sense of justice and an understanding of the law, and the community has lost a respected citizen who contributed much to the growth and development of Fort Wayne and Allen County.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Schannen
Harold E. Korn
Robert H. Leonard
Lloyd S. Hartzler
Edward H. Kruse
Edward W. Meyers
Harry H. Hilgemann
Clarence R. McNabb, Chairman