

IN RE RESOLUTION OF THE
ALLEN COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION,
FEBRUARY 14, 1950 IN HONOR OF
THE MEMORY OF GEORGE E. GLASS

WHEREAS, GEORGE E. GLASS, a member of the Allen County Bar, died February 12th, 1950;

And, Whereas, we the members of the Allen County Bar in special session assembled this 14th day of February, find as follows:

George E. Glass was born in Bluffton, Indiana, September 19th, 1905, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dal Glass;

In 1933 Mr. Glass graduated from the Law College of the University of Indiana;

His assiduous practice of the law at Bluffton and his delightfully pleasing personality were impelling factors in his election as prosecuting attorney in Wells County, Indiana; his tenure in this office was replete with success and distinction;

For the past several years he was a highly esteemed and beloved member of this, the Allen County Bar;

During World War II he devoted considerable time to armanent work; it may well be said of George E. Glass that he, too, was a war casualty, for his labours most likely contributed to the impairment of his health;

In this City and this area he had a host of friends; one became his friend upon first sight;

And he was ever a fighter for the cause of friend and client;

About George E. Glass that part of the poem by Robert Browning entitled "PROSPICE" may well be quoted:

"I was a fighter, so--one fight more,
The best and the last!
I would hate that death bandaged my eyes, and forbore,
And bade me creep past.
No! let me taste the whole of it, fare like my peers
The heroes of old,
Bear the brunt, in a minute pay glad life's arrears
Of pain, darkness and cold.
For sudden the worst turns the best to the brave,
The black minute's at end,
For the elements' rage, the fiend-voices that rave,
Shall dwindle, shall blend,
Shall change, shall become first a peace out of pain,
Then a light, then thy breast,
O thou soul of my soul! I shall clasp thee again,
And with God be the rest!"

Now, Therefore, be it resolved by the members of the Allen County Bar that we deeply regret the passing of Mr. Glass and extend to his widow, Mary Ellen, and his daughter, Sandra Ann, and his twin brother Gerald and his brother Kenneth, and his parents, our profound sympathy in their bereavement.
